Services at Deane

Every Sunday

10:15am—Fellowship over coffee/tea and pastries

10:45am— time of praise and prayer, followed by a Bible reading and teaching.

Once a month we also celebrate communion together

Sunday at 9:00am (usually 2nd and 4th Sunday of the month) —a said (no singing) service of Holy Communion or Morning Prayer. The service is about 60 minutes, and is followed by a time of fellowship over coffee/tea and pastries.

Wednesday at 9:45am (usually following a Sunday without a 9am service) - a service of Holy Communion in Deane Church Centre. The service lasts about 45 minutes. See below for dates. The service is followed by our café, open until 12noon.

For children and young people, twice a month on a Sunday morning

10:40am Creche: for pre-school ages in the crèche room at the back of church.

10:40am Junior Church: ages 3/4 to Year 5 go over together to the Church Centre and enjoy singing, learning, being creative and spending time together.

10:40am Pathfinders: Yr 6—9 go over to the Church Centre for their own teaching stream.
